

the Slip

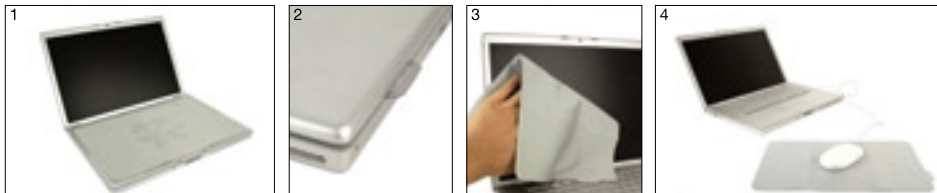

Sizes colour of all sizes is SILVER GREY

The Slip's material is sooo sensuous that it would be worth buying a hundred or two which you could stitch together to fashion a pair of silky pyjamas and some bedsheets. Slipping and sliding around your bed in a hazy rapture, you won't regret your indulgent purchasing. For those of you who find it difficult to connect with your latent, natural sexuality, just buy one and keep it between your keyboard and screen, stroking it occasionally when nobody's watching.

Features
